

Volunteer Ottawa presents:

GET OFF YOUR APATHY!

Get Off Your Apathy is a “youth engagement conference” and an opportunity to show how wrong the stereotype of the apathetic youth can be. Ten organizations will be present to inspire and inform you about how you can go about taking action on issues that are important to you.

What: This is an all day, free conference, open to youth aged 16-24, consisting of three workshops of your choice, plus, an action planning session in which you can figure out “What next?”.

When and Where: The conference is registration only on Thursday, February 16th, 2012. Sign in begins at 9:15 am and the day wraps up at 3:50 pm at the Ottawa Arts Court.

Snacks and lunch provided but please be eco-friendly—bring your own mug or water bottle.

To register for the conference, email Damien Martin @ youth@volunteerottawa.ca
